He Is It

"There is no final way to judge the worth of a teacher except in terms of the lives of those he has taught."

Editorial, Peabody Journal of Education

Dedication

To Mr. Clarence L. Binney We visualize you in the classroom teaching us Pennsylvania History and Civics and exposing us to the many over-all sides to being a good citizen We think of you in after-school hours coaching the Junior High Basketball team We recognize your contribution to the field of athletics through your refereeing of football and basketball, serving as Secretary-Treasurer of the P.I.A.A. Basketball Officials of the area as well as your personal interest in the sport of golf We are aware of the example you set for community involvement through your membership in the Historical Society and American Legion as well as your participation in other community activities.

All who have come to know you, Mr. Binney, know all these things plus your honesty, integrity, and leadership that you have always shown us. Because of all your efforts and support, we the class of 1973 with deepest gratitude, honor, and pride dedicate this edition of the Dawn to you

Mr. Clarence L. Binney

Donald David Zuchowski

October 19, 1955 - April 5, 1978

In one sense there is no death. The life of a soul on earth lasts beyond his departure. You will always feel that life touching yours, that voice speaking to you, that spirit looking out of other eyes, talking to you in the familiar things he touched, worked with, loved as familiar friends. He lives on in your life and in the lives of all others that knew him.
